Held-out depth predictions at retained 30 m centres

Survey labels and one out-of-fold prediction per cell; no continuous surface is interpolated. Colour limits are site-specific because local vertical zeros differ.