From coastal image to site-local depth estimate

Band tiles show measured reflectance in the marked 270 m patch. Map points show retained 30 m cells only. Depth is positive down from each site's own port zero; no continuous surface is interpolated.