Held-out validation: density agreement and depth-dependent residuals

Each site uses its lowest pooled-RMSE method. The fitted line is descriptive; the dashed line is 1:1. Residual trend lines show binned medians and interquartile ranges; all scores use each site's own survey zero.